

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

LBF TRAVEL, INC.,

Plaintiff,

v.

FAREPORTAL, INC. and WK TRAVEL, INC.

Defendants.

FIRST AMENDED COMPLAINT

Case No. 13 Civ. 9143 (LAK)

TRIAL BY JURY
DEMANDED

LBF Travel, Inc. ("LBF Travel"), by their counsel, WILSON, ELSER, MOSKOWITZ, EDELMAN & DICKER LLP, brings this First Amended Complaint against Fareportal, Inc. ("Fareportal") and WK Travel, Inc. ("WK Travel") (collectively, "Defendants") alleging the following:

NATURE OF ACTION

1. This is an action to recover for Defendants' willful acts of: (a) trademark infringement, unfair competition, and false designation of origin under 15 U.S.C. §§ 1051 et seq. (the Lanham Act); (b) trademark infringement and unfair competition in violation of New York State common law; (c) trademark dilution and injury to business reputation under New York General Business Law ("NY GBL") § 360-1; (d) trade name infringement under NY GBL § 133; (e) unfair and deceptive trade practices under NY GBL § 349; (f) false advertising under NY GBL, § 350; (g) unfair business practice under New York State common law; (h) unjust enrichment under New York State common law; and (i) for cancellation of Defendants' U.S. Trademark Registrations.

2. LBF Travel is an online discount travel services business that owns and operates several prominent and well-known online travel companies, which offer discount travel products to online customers through websites www.smartfares.com, and www.travelation.com.

3. Upon information and belief, Defendants are affiliated companies under common ownership and/or control that operate competing online travel websites www.cheapoair.com, www.onetravel.com, www.cheapostay.com, www.farebuzz.com and www.insanelycheapflights.com. Defendants are direct competitors of LBF Travel in the market of online travel services.

4. Defendants have attempted to develop and enhance their consumer base by infringing on Plaintiff's trademarks and trade name, and otherwise engaging in unfair competition in violation of federal and New York law, to the significant injury of Plaintiff and the New York consumer public.

5. Defendants, with full knowledge of Plaintiff's existence and their rights in the federally-registered TRAVELATION trademark and their www.smartfares.com trade name and brand, to which New York common law protection attaches, have made infringing use of Plaintiff's trademarks and trade names in a manner that is likely to cause consumer confusion and dilute and tarnish Plaintiff's trademarks and trade names.

6. Specifically, Defendants have improperly infringed upon and diluted Plaintiff's trademarks by purchasing Plaintiff's trademarks as keywords from Google and other search engines (activity known as "search engine marketing" or "SEM"), so that when an internet user searches for "Travelation" or "smartfares" on Google or another search engine, advertisement hyperlink for one of the websites of the Defendants, LBF Travel's Competitors, will appear on the first page of the search results. This enables Defendants to use the TRAVELATION trade mark and the www.smartfares.com trade name to place their advertising hyperlinks in front of consumers who specifically search for TRAVELATION or "smartfares," thereby diverting a percentage of such Internet users from LBF Travel and enjoying and benefitting from all the goodwill and "buyer's momentum" associated with Plaintiff's valuable trademark and trade name, but at a fraction of the cost.

7. Defendants thereby profit financially from infringing upon and diluting Plaintiff's protected trademarks.

8. Furthermore, Defendants have engaged in false advertising and other consumer protection violations, by advertising misleading percentage-off sales without disclosure of basis for comparison, advertising limited-time "sales" when such savings were in fact available on an ongoing basis, and otherwise creating an impression for consumers that Defendants offer significantly better prices, and encouraging consumers to not comparison-shop. Such activities have caused harm to the consumer public in general, as consumers have been misled as to the cost/value of the travel services provided by Defendants. Defendants' conduct has further caused damages to LBF Travel, who is forced to compete with overstated discounts and non-existent savings that Defendants claim to offer in order to not lose its price-sensitive customers to Defendants' unfair competition practices.

CEASE AND DESIST LETTER

9. Prior to initiating this action, Plaintiff attempted to resolve the matter of trademark and trade name infringement out of court by sending a cease and desist letter to the Defendants.

10. The cease and desist letter included, among other things, the allegations set forth in this Complaint.

11. The cease and desist letter was sent to the Defendants' legal counsel via electronic mail on October 28, 2013. A true and correct copy of the October 28, 2013 cease and desist letter is annexed hereto as Exhibit A.

12. Defendants' legal counsel acknowledged receipt of the October 28, 2013 cease and desist letter in the email correspondence dated October 30, 2013, and claimed that Defendants were "not engaging in any infringing activity with respect to LBF's trademarks." A true and correct copy of the Defendants' counsel's October 30, 2013 letter is annexed hereto as Exhibit B.

10. Despite Defendants' counsel's October 30, 2013 acknowledgment and assurances, Defendants continued the same infringing activity with respect to Plaintiff's trademarks that the cease and desist letter sought to prevent.

THE PARTIES

11. Plaintiff LBF Travel is a Delaware corporation with a place of business at 4545 Murphy Canyon Road, Suite 210 San Diego, CA 92123.

12. Defendant Fareportal is a New York corporation with a place of business at 213 West 35th Street, Suite 1201, New York, New York 10001

13. Defendant WK Travel is a Nevada corporation with a place of business at 213 West 35th Street, Suite 1201, New York, New York 10001.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

15. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction of this action on the following basis:

(i) Under 15 U.S.C. §1121(actions arising under 15 U.S.C., Chapter 22 – Trademarks) since this action involves questions arising under the Lanham Act §43(a), 15 U.S.C. §1114, §1064, et seq.;

(ii) Under 28 U.S.C. § 1331 (federal question) since this action arises under the Lanham Act §43(a), 15 U.S.C. §1114 et seq.;

(iii) Under 28 U.S.C. §1332 (diversity of citizenship) since Plaintiff and Defendants are corporate citizens of different states;

(iv) Under 28 U.S.C. §1338 (acts of Congress relating to trademarks) since this action arises under the Lanham Act §43(a), 15 U.S.C. §1114 et seq.;

(v) Under 28 U.S.C. § 1367 (supplemental jurisdiction); and

(vi) Under 28 U.S.C. §§2201-02 of the Federal Declaratory Judgment Act.

16. Venue is proper in this District pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1391 (b) and (c), because a substantial part of the harm sought to be avoided, and a substantial part of the events and omissions giving rise to the claims asserted herein, occurred within this District.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

I. Plaintiff's Business and Trademark Holdings

17. Plaintiff LBF Travel is an online discount travel services business that owns travel brands SMARTFARES and TRAVELATION ("LBF's Marks"), and operates websites under those brands under the Uniform Resource Locator ("URL") <http://www.smartfares.com> and <http://www.travelation.com>, respectively.

18. Through great expense and care, LBF Travel has become well known and famous in its market and has acquired a reputation for excellence and outstanding service to customers. As a result, LBF Travel's reputation, and the goodwill associated with LBF's Marks are very valuable business assets, which LBF Travel vigorously protects.

18. Since at least 2010, LBF Travel has used SMARTFARES, and operated the website located at the URL <http://www.smartfares.com>; the website has been active in commerce since at least 2007. On November 21, 2013, LBF Travel filed an application, serial number 86-125,535, to register SMARTFARES with the United States Patent and Trademark Office ("USPTO"). The application is pending. SMARTFARES is a leading online source of discounted leisure and business travel products. Through the SMARTFARES website, LBF Travel provides travel information to consumers and allows consumers to book plane tickets, hotel accommodations, rental cars, cruises and vacations.

19. Since at least 2010, LBF Travel has used TRAVELATION and operated the related website <http://www.travelation.com>; the website has been active in commerce since at least 2005. Since 2008 there has been a federal registration number 77,263,149 for TRAVELATION, which is owned by LBF Travel. TRAVELATION is a leading online source of discounted leisure and business travel products. Through the TRAVELATION website, LBF Travel provides travel information to consumers and allows consumers to book plane tickets, hotel accommodations, rental cars, cruises and vacations.

20. Plaintiff has used LBF's Marks in connection with, inter alia, providing air travel bookings, hotel reservations and booking services for car rentals, packages and insurance, continuously since the dates listed above and far prior to the acts of Defendants complained of herein.

21. Because of the nature of LBF Travel's services, which are primarily online discount travel services, the vast majority of potential customers of LBF Travel come to LBF Travel's websites via the Internet to do business and search for travel services.

22. LBF Travel conducts a substantial amount of its business over the Internet, receiving thousands of visitors to its websites each month. LBF Travel advertises over the Internet, including advertising at Google and other search engines.

23. LBF's Marks have become distinctive and famous and serve to distinguish LBF Travel's reputation, goods and services from its competition. As a result of extensive use and promotion by Plaintiff of LBF's Marks, Plaintiff owns the valuable goodwill that is symbolized by them. LBF's Marks have come to be associated in the minds of consumers throughout the country with Plaintiff's services, and the use of LBF's Marks, key parts thereof and close variations thereof substantially increases the marketability of travel, reservation, and booking services rendered by Plaintiff through its www.smartfares.com and www.travelation.com websites. Part of the benefit of this notoriety is that potential customers will search specifically for LBF's Marks through a variety of Internet search engines, including Google.

II. Defendants' Business Operations

24. Upon information and belief, Defendants are affiliated companies with common ownership and/or management.

25. Upon information and belief, Fareportal owns a portfolio of travel brands, including CheapOair and CheapOstay, and operates websites under those brands from the URL <http://www.cheapOair.com> and <http://www.cheapOstay.com>, respectively. CheapOair offers discounted airfare, airline tickets, and vacation packages to online consumers. CheapOstay offers discounted hotel accommodations to consumers.

26. Upon information and belief, Fareportal owns the following federally-registered trademarks:

Mark	Reg. No.	Good And Services
CHEAPOAIR <sup>1</sup>	3,576,166	(a) Advertising services for travel services, namely, promoting the goods, services, brand identity and commercial information and news of travel and travel related companies on the Internet;  (b) Providing an on-line computer database in the field of travel information services; travel and tour information service; travel and tour ticket reservation service; travel services, namely, providing fare and rate information for transportation bookings and reservations for flights, car rentals, cruises, rail travel, and tours via computer; providing travel information and news via computer; providing links to websites of others featuring travel;  (c) Providing travel lodging information services and travel lodging booking agency services for travelers.

CheapOstay <sup>2</sup>	3,672,700	(a) Advertising and marketing services, namely, promoting the goods and services of others;  (b) Providing an on-line computer database in the field of travel information services; Providing links to web sites of others featuring travel; Provision of travel information; Travel and tour information service; Travel and tour ticket reservation service;  (c) Making hotel reservations for others; Providing travel lodging information services and travel lodging booking agency services for travelers.
CHEAPOAIR.COM THE ONLY WAY TO GO!! <sup>3</sup>	3,580,258	Providing links to web sites of others featuring travel; Travel and tour information service; Travel and tour ticket reservation service.
CHEAPOAIR.COM THE ONLY WAY TO GO!! (stylized mark) <sup>4</sup>	3,553,213	Providing links to web sites of others featuring travel; Travel and tour information service; Travel and tour ticket reservation service.

27. The terms CHEAPOAIR and CHEAPOSTAY are compound terms.

28. The term CHEAPOAIR is a compound term consisting of the words "CHEAP" and "AIR" with the letter "O" juxtaposed between them.

29. The term CHEAPOSTAY is a compound term consisting of the words "CHEAP" and "STAY" with the letter "O" juxtaposed between them.

30. Online dictionary www.dictionary.com provides the following definitions, among others, for the term "CHEAP":

1. costing very little; relatively low in price; inexpensive: a cheap dress.
2. costing little labor or trouble: Words are cheap.
3. charging low prices: a very cheap store.
4. of little account; of small value; mean; shoddy: cheap conduct; cheap workmanship.
5. embarrassed; sheepish: He felt cheap about his mistake.

31. Similarly, www.dictionary.com provides the following definitions, among others, of the term "AIR":

1. a mixture of nitrogen, oxygen, and minute amounts of other gases that surrounds the earth and forms its atmosphere.
2. a stir in the atmosphere; a light breeze.
3. overhead space; sky: The planes filled the air.
4. circulation; publication; publicity: to give air to one's theories.
5. the general character or complexion of anything; appearance: His early work had an air of freshness and originality.

32. The combination of the words "CHEAP" and "AIR" with the letter "O" juxtaposed between them to form the compound term CHEAPOAIR does nothing to change the meaning of the individual words CHEAP and AIR.

33. Thus, the term CHEAPOAIR is descriptive, if not generic, for the services in connection with which it is being used, i.e., "Advertising services for travel services, namely, promoting the goods, services, brand identity and commercial information and news of travel and travel related companies on the Internet;" "Providing an on-line computer database in the field of travel information services; travel and tour information service; travel and tour ticket reservation service; travel services, namely, providing fare and rate information for transportation bookings and reservations for flights, car rentals, cruises, rail travel, and tours via computer; providing travel information and news via computer; providing links to websites of others featuring travel;" and "Providing travel lodging information services and travel lodging booking agency services for travelers."

34. Likewise, www.dictionary.com provides the following definitions, among others, for the term "STAY":

1. to spend some time in a place, in a situation, with a person or group, etc.:
He stayed in the army for ten years.
2. to continue to be as specified, as to condition or state: to stay clean.
3. to hold out or endure, as in a contest or task (followed by with or at):
Please stay with the project as long as you can.
4. to keep up, as with a competitor (followed by with ).
5. Poker. to continue in a hand by matching an ante, bet, or raise.
6. to stop or halt.
7. to pause or wait, as for a moment, before proceeding or continuing; linger or tarry.
8. Archaic. to cease or desist.
9. Archaic. to stand firm.
10. to stop or halt.
11. to hold back, detain, or restrain, as from going further.
12. to suspend or delay (actions, proceedings, etc.).
13. to appease or satisfy temporarily the cravings of (the stomach, appetite, etc.).
14. to remain through or during (a period of time): We stayed two days in San Francisco.

35. The combination of the words "CHEAP" and "STAY" with the letter "O" juxtaposed between them to form the compound term CHEAPOSTAY does nothing to change the meaning of the individual words CHEAP and STAY.

36. Thus, the term CHEAPOSTAY is descriptive, if not generic, for the services in connection with which it is being used, i.e. "Advertising and marketing services, namely, promoting the goods and services of others;" "Providing an on-line computer database in the field of travel information services; Providing links to web sites of others featuring travel; Provision of travel information; Travel and tour information service; Travel and tour ticket reservation service;" and "Making hotel reservations for others; Providing travel lodging information services and travel lodging booking agency services for travelers."

37. Upon information and belief, WK Travel uses the ONETRAVEL mark and operates the website located at the URL <http://www.onetravel.com>. Onetravel.com offers discounted airfare, airline tickets, and vacation packages to online consumers.

38. Upon information and belief, Defendants use the INSANELYCHEAPFLIGHTS mark and operate the website located at the URL <http://www.insanelycheapflights.com>. InsanelyCheapFlights.com offers discounted airfare, accommodations, car rental, and vacation packages to online consumers.

39. Upon information and belief, Defendants use the FAREBUZZ mark and operate the website located at the URL <http://www.farebuzz.com>. Farebuzz.com offers discounted airfare, accommodations, car rental, and vacation packages to online consumers.

40. Upon information and belief, Defendants own several brands for which they have applications pending for federal registration before the USPTO, and which they use to offer travel services to online consumers:

Mark	Filing No.	Good And Services
CHEAPOAIR.COM	85566395	(a) Advertising services for travel services, namely, promoting the goods, services, brand identity and commercial information and news of travel and travel related companies on the Internet; (b) Providing an on-line computer database in the field of travel information services; travel and tour information service; travel and tour ticket reservation service; travel services, namely, providing fare and rate information for transportation bookings and reservations for flights, car rentals, cruises, rail travel, and tours via computer; and providing travel information and news via computer; (c) Providing travel lodging information services and travel lodging booking agency services for travelers.
www.cheapOair.com	85564451	(a) Providing an on-line computer database in the field of travel information services; travel and tour information service; travel and tour ticket reservation service; travel services, namely, providing fare and rate information for

		transportation bookings and reservations for flights, car rentals, cruises, rail travel, and tours via computer; and providing travel information and news via computer;
		(b) Providing travel lodging information services and travel lodging booking agency services for travelers.
ONETRAVEL	85,620,094	Providing an on-line computer database in the field of travel information services; travel and tour information services; travel and tour ticket reservation services; travel services, namely, providing fare and rate information for transportation bookings and reservations for flights, car rentals, cruises, rail travel, and tours via computer; providing travel information and news via computer.

41. Defendants are direct competitors of Plaintiff in the area of online travel services, offering similar travel products through similar means to the business- and leisure-traveling public.

42. Defendants have used LBF's Marks to increase the marketability of Defendants' own travel, reservation, and booking services through the purchase of LBF's Marks as advertising keywords from search engines (as explained below), in order to wrongfully suggest to the consumer public that their services are affiliated with, sponsored by, authorized by, or provided by Plaintiff for the purpose of misleading consumers into purchasing Defendants' services rather than Plaintiff's services.

III. Defendants' Trademark Registrations Were Improperly Issued

43. U.S. Trademark Registration No. 3,576,166 for the mark CHEAPOAIR (Exhibit C) issued as a result of a trademark application that Defendants filed with the USPTO on September 11, 2008. The U.S. Trademark Serial Number assigned to such application by the USPTO is 77-567,343 (Exhibit C).

44. U.S. Trademark Registration No. 3,580,258 for the mark CHEAPOAIR.COM THE ONLY WAY TO GO!! (Exhibit E) issued as a result of a trademark application that Defendants filed with USPTO on July 21, 2008. The U.S. Trademark Serial Number assigned to such application by the USPTO is 77-527,426 (Exhibit E).

45. U.S. Trademark Registration No. 3,553,213 for the mark CHEAPOAIR.COM THE ONLY WAY TO GO!! (stylized mark) issued as a result of a trademark application that Defendants filed with USPTO on March 14, 2008. The U.S. Trademark Serial Number assigned to such application by the USPTO is 77-422,393 (Exhibit F).

46. American Travel Solutions, LLC (a non-party to the present matter) is the owner of U.S. Trademark Registration No. 2,890,981 for the mark CHEAPAIR INC. for use in connection with "travel agency services, namely making reservations and bookings for airplane transportation, car rentals and arranging cruises".

47. American Travel Solutions, LLC's U.S. trademark Registration No. 2,890,981 for the mark CHEAPAIR INC. issued on the principal register of the USPTO on October 5, 2004, long before any one of Defendants' applications identified above were filed in 2008. A copy of American Travel Solutions, LLC's Certificate for U.S. Trademark Registration No. 2,890,981 for the mark CHEAPAIR INC. is annexed hereto as Exhibit G.

48. American Travel Solutions, LLC is also the owner of the U.S. Trademark Registration No. 3,813,293 for the mark CHEAPAIR.COM, issued on the principal register of the USPTO on July 6, 2010. A copy of American Travel Solutions, LLC's Certificate for U.S. Trademark Registration No. 3,813,293 for the mark CHEAPAIR.COM is annexed hereto as Exhibit H.

49. On February 4, 2013, American Travel Solutions, LLC initiated an Opposition Proceeding against the Defendants, by which they oppose the registration of Defendants' U.S. Trademark Application Serial No. 85-566,395 for the mark CHEAPOAIR.COM. A copy of American Travel Solutions LLC's Notice of Opposition and Opposition as filed with the USPTO is annexed hereto as Exhibit I.

50. On December 7, 2012, American Travel Solutions, LLC initiated an Opposition Proceeding against the Defendants, by which they oppose the registration of Defendants' U.S. Trademark Application Serial No. 85-564,451 for the mark WWW.CHEAPOAIR.COM. A copy of American Travel Solutions LLC's Notice of Opposition and Opposition as filed with the USPTO is annexed hereto as Exhibit J.

51. Defendants have had constructive notice of American Travel Solutions LLC's U.S. Trademark Registration No. 2,890,981 for the mark CHEAPAIR INC. and U.S. Trademark Registration No. 3,813,293 for the mark CHEAPAIR.COM, both issued by the USPTO on the Principal Register.

52. American Travel Solutions LLC has been using the mark CHEAPAIR in commerce since at least February 1, 1994 (Exhibit G).

53. American Travel Solutions LLC has been using the mark CHEAPAIR.COM in commerce since September 2003 (Exhibit H).

54. Defendants have been using the mark CHEAPOAIR in commerce since at least July 1, 2005 (Exhibit C); almost eleven years after American Travel Solutions LLC started using its mark CHEAPAIR in commerce.

55. Defendants have been using the mark CHEAPOAIR.COM THE ONLY WAY TO GO!! in commerce since at least October 15, 2005 (Exhibit E); almost two years after American Travel Solutions LLC started using its mark CHEAPAIR.COM in commerce in September 2003.

56. Defendants' marks CHEAPOAIR and CHEAPOAIR.COM sound the same, look the same and convey the same commercial impression as American Travel Solutions LLC's marks CHEAPAIR and CHEAPAIR.COM.

57. Defendants' marks and services travel in the same routes of trade and target the same consumers as American Travel Solutions LLC marks.

58. Thus, as American Travel Solutions LLC has asserted in its Opposition Proceedings against Defendants' U.S. Trademark Applications, Defendants' "use of the marks CHEAPOAIR and CHEAPOAIR.COM is likely to cause confusion, mistake and deception with American Travel LLC's CHEAPAIR and CHEAPAIR.COM marks." While Plaintiff did not file another opposition proceeding against Defendants' U.S. Trademark Applications as such proceeding would be redundant, Plaintiff is nonetheless similarly situated as American Travel Solutions LLC with respect to the damages to Plaintiff business that would result from registration of these marks

59. In addition, Defendants' specimens filed with the USPTO to show use are improper because they do not provide evidence of use of Defendants' marks in commerce.

60. In view of all of the foregoing, the USPTO improperly issued Defendants' registrations identified above.

61. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' Registrations, Plaintiff has sustained irreparable harm and injury.

62. Defendants' filed a Complaint in the matter captioned Fareportal, Inc. and WK Travel, Inc. v. LBF Travel, Inc. and Globester LLC, which is currently pending before the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, Docket No. 13-CV-2412, alleging, among other things, that Plaintiff has infringed on Defendants' trademarks

CHEAPOAIR, CHEAPOSTAY and CHEAPOAIR.COM THE ONLY WAY TO GO!! (the "2412 Matter"). Defendants' initiation of the 2412 Matter created a case of actual controversy within the meaning of 28 U.S.C. §2201 et seq. thus warranting the declaratory relief sought by Plaintiff in this matter.

63. Unless Defendants' marks are declared invalid and unenforceable and their Registrations are cancelled, Plaintiff will continue to suffer further irreparable injury and harm.

IV. Facts Common to All Claims for Relief

A. Background on Federal and Common Law Trademark Infringement in Search Engine Marketing

64. Internet users have two primary ways of attempting to find the website for a particular company. First, a user may guess that the website of a particular company will use the company's name or trademark as a "domain name" (the website's digital location on the Internet); and type in that domain name into an Internet browser, which would then display the contents of the company's website. The second option an Internet user has to find the website of the company he or she is looking for is to type in that company's name or known trademarks into an Internet search engine, of which Google is one.

65. Google offers a program called "AdWords" which allows advertisers to bid for their advertising hyperlinks to appear in response to particular search terms input by Internet users (hereafter, "Keywords"). The advertising hyperlinks, called "sponsored links", appear either to the right of the search results, or immediately above the search results. A sponsored link is a hyperlink, which contains the text of the advertiser's ad, and allows the Internet user to use their mouse to "click" on the link, which brings the Internet user directly to the advertiser's commercial website. The advertisers pay defendant Google based upon the number of "clicks" on these sponsored links. Advertisers bid for placement of their advertisements for each possible variation of a Keyword, as there is limited space on defendant Google's search results page.

66. The so-called "sponsored links" do not always clearly identify themselves as advertisements, and Google's layout of the ads does not conspicuously identify them as such. This is particularly true of the sponsored links which appear at the top of the search results. These ads at the top of the search results are designed by Google to look like part of the "non-sponsored" search results, and by virtue of the fact that they appear at the top of the list of Search Results, Internet users may infer that they are the most relevant websites on the Search Results page.

67. Other search engines also offer online advertising programs associated with specific words or phrases, commonly referred to as Search Engine Marketing ("SEM"). Through SEM, an advertiser's advertisements will appear among the sponsored search engine results when an Internet user inputs a specific keyword in a search engine's search bar. Generally, the search engine will award the first sponsored result to the advertiser that has placed the highest bid on the keyword, i.e. the advertiser that has agreed to pay to the search engine operator the highest amount each time an independent internet user takes a particular action (such as searching a term or clicking on a link in the advertisement). Google AdWords, Yahoo! Search Marketing, and Microsoft (Bing) AdCenter are currently the most popular SEM programs in the United States.

68. LBF's Marks are often-searched terms on the Internet. As part of LBF Travel's advertising strategy, LBF Travel submits to Google and some other search engines LBF's Marks as Keywords, both alone and in combination with other words. Whenever an Internet user searched on Google or another search engine for "travelation" or "smartfares", one of LBF

Travel's Sponsored Links will appear either immediately above or to the immediate right hand side of the Search Results. If the Internet user clicks on this link, the user will be brought to one of LBF Travel's websites.

69. Defendants also advertise their competing services on the Internet, through Google AdWords program and other search engine advertising programs. Upon information and belief, Defendants have submitted LBF's Marks as Keywords to Google and other search engines, either alone, or in conjunction with other words, such that when an Internet user searches on Google.com or other search engines for "SMARTFARES" or "TRAVELATION," Defendants' competing sponsored links appear prominently either to the immediate right or on top of the Search Results page.

70. Defendants systematically use LBF's Marks and close variations thereof in their SEM campaigns for the CheapOair, CheapOstay, Onetravel, Farebuzz and InsanelyCheapFlights brands. Upon information and belief, Defendants purchase advertising using LBF's Marks as Keywords for the specific purpose of intercepting consumers and customers of LBF Travel and those who are specifically looking for TRAVELATION and SMARTFARES and diverting them to Defendants, LBF Travel's competitors.

71. Upon information and belief, Defendants use LBF's Marks for several improper purposes, including (1) diverting potential customers, who are actively looking for LBF Travel or LBF's Marks, to Defendant's websites; (2) taking advantage of and trading upon and receiving the benefits of the goodwill and good reputation associated with the LBF Travel's name and LBF's Marks, which LBF Travel has developed at great expense; (3) giving Defendants' goods and services appeal, credibility and marketability by association with the LBF Travel's name and LBF's Marks; (4) Falsely indicating to potential customers that Defendants are sponsored, endorsed, affiliated with or approved by LBF Travel; (4) falsely implying that Defendants' services are as good as, or a credible substitute for, those goods and services offered by LBF Travel; (5) hijacking LBF's Marks by diverting the good-will associated with LBF's Marks to Defendants' own benefit, without authorization or compensation to LBF Travel; (6) forcing LBF Travel to make higher bids for its own LBF's Marks as Keywords so that LBF Travel's sponsored links appear on searches for "TRAVELATION" and "SMARTFARES", all to Defendants' profit.

72. Defendants' use of the LBF's Marks via search engine advertising programs causes confusion in the marketplace that Defendants' goods and services are affiliated with or otherwise approved or "sponsored" by LBF Travel; causes LBF's Marks to be diluted by losing their distinctive quality of being associated solely with LBF Travel; allows Defendants to financially benefit from and to trade off of the goodwill and reputation of LBF Travel without incurring an expense similar to that incurred by Plaintiff in building up its brand name; and causes LBF Travel to lose, in part, control over the commercial use of its own name and LBF's Marks by placing such control in the hands of Defendants.

73. When an Internet user searching on a search engine for LBF's Marks is presented with a search results page which contains multiple sponsored links, one of which may be for LBF Travel's websites, and others for Defendants' competing websites. Internet users may click on one of the sponsored links for Defendants' websites, believing that it is related to, or sponsored by LBF Travel. Even if the Internet user realizes that the website they have been taken to is not LBF Travel's website, a percentage of such Internet users may either stay at the Defendant's websites, or may otherwise discontinue their search for LBF's Marks. An Internet user may associate the quality of goods and services offered on Defendant's website with those offered by LBF Travel, and if dissatisfied with such goods or services, may discontinue their search for such services entirely.

1. Trademark Infringement in Search Engine Marketing by Plaintiffs (CheapOair.com, CheapOstay.com, Onetravel.com and

74. Defendants' purchase of or bidding on LBF's Marks as part of their SEM campaigns constitutes unauthorized use of LBF's Marks in commerce, that is clearly intended to cause consumer confusion about the source of Defendants' services and/or the relationship or affiliation between these Defendants and Plaintiff, and which serves to benefit Defendants financially.

75. These unauthorized uses of LBF's Marks are prohibited by federal trademark and unfair competition law, New York State trademark and unfair competition law, and common law.

76. As of the date of this First Amended Complaint, Defendants continue to use LBF's Marks and close variations thereof in their respective online advertisements, as detailed below.

77. Beginning in at least June 2013, LBF Travel included the SMARTFARES, Plaintiff's mark protected by common law, within its keyword advertisements, as illustrated by the following advertisement:

78. Similarly, a Google search for the website "travelation.com," featuring in its name Plaintiff's federally-registered mark TRAVELATION, caused the following SERP to be displayed:

The screenshot shows a Google search for "travelation.com". The search bar at the top contains the text "travelation.com" and a magnifying glass icon. Below the search bar, there are tabs for "Web", "Images", "Maps", "Shopping", "Applications", "More", and "Search tools". The results page indicates "Page 2 of about 70,990 results (0.23 seconds)". A warning message states: "Warning: This page is a tool for AdWords advertisers to test their ads. For full Google functionality return to the Google homepage." The results are divided into two columns. The left column contains several search results, including an advertisement for "travelation.com - Travelation® Official Site" with a link to "www.travelation.com/", a 316 reviews rating, and a promotion for "Up To 70% + $15 Off On Flights". Below the ad are links to "Travelation | Facebook" and a discussion on "Is travelation.com a reliable site to buy cheap flight tickets...". The right column contains an advertisement for "Up to 80% Off Flights" from "www.travelzoo.com/" and a search result for "Travelation" from "www.cheapflights.com/Cheap_Flight_Deals". A boxed search result for "Cheap Travel Deals" from "www.cheapoair.com/Cheap-Travel" is also visible. 79. In fact, Defendants' infringement on other companies' trademarks is pervasive, as Defendants are not only targeting LBF's Marks and brands in their search engine bidding activity. In fact, they are engaged in an intentional, willful, widespread and systematic campaign of bidding on trademarks and brands of other online travel companies, including but not limited to www.priceline.com, www.hotwire.com, www.cheapflights.com and www.travelocity.com, as part of Defendants' SEM strategy.

80. For example, a Google search for "priceline.com," a federally-registered trademark of priceline.com Incorporated, U.S. Trademark Registration Nos. 4364773, 4111968, 4111958, 2481112, caused the following sponsored search results to be displayed:

81. A Google search for "hotwire.com," federally-registered trademark of Hotwire, Inc., U.S. Trademark Registration Nos. 3428658 and 3387685, caused the following sponsored search results to be displayed:

82. Defendants' Keyword advertisements and uses of LBF's Marks and close variations thereof detailed above are not advertisements for Plaintiff's services and were made without Plaintiff's permission. These actions threaten to impair the distinctiveness of LBF's Marks and to tarnish them by association with Defendants' services, thereby diluting LBF's Marks.

2. Elements Heightening the Likelihood of Confusion: Confusingly Similar "Look and Feel" of Defendants' Websites

83. Not only have Defendants violated federal and New York trademark and unfair competition law by using LBF's Marks in their advertisements, they have also intentionally heightened the likelihood of confusion among consumers as to the affiliation, sponsorship, or source of the services provided by imitating the graphic user interface of Plaintiff's websites, in order to mimic the "look and feel" of Plaintiff's websites. This intentional imitation furthers the wrongful impression initially created by Defendants' trademark infringement that Defendants' services are affiliated with, sponsored by, authorized by, or provided by Plaintiff.

84. Plaintiff has established distinctive, nonfunctional design elements for their websites, which consumers have come to associate with Plaintiff's services. The layout of Plaintiff's websites appears not as a static presentation, but rather as a series of overlapping layers aimed at accomplishing specific tasks. The graphic design of the pages of LBF Travel's websites, the "look", is tied to the "interface design," comprised of dynamic navigation elements, such as hyperlinks, boxes, buttons, menus. These interactive elements contribute to the "feel" of the website, its overall mood, style and impression. A consistent "look and feel" allows Internet users to develop an intuitive model for using LBF Travel's websites.

85. For web-based travel companies, the "look and feel" of the website serves a similar purpose as the nonfunctional design and layout of the packaging of a physical retail product. The "look and feel" of a website is essential to LBF Travel's standing in the market, it promotes the firm's reputation and recognition of LBF's Marks and brands. When an Internet user visits LBF Travel's website, he or she is comforted by the distinctive design, knowing that the look and feel is clearly associated with LBF Travel and LBF's Marks. This branding facilitates the association with LBF Travel's reputation.

86. LBF Travel has independently and in good faith developed the graphic and interactive layouts that now comprise the "look and feel" of its websites, using the dynamic navigation elements seen on many websites in the industry and its own visual design choices. Since the creation of LBF Travel's websites, these websites have acquired distinctiveness and Internet users have come to associate the overall "look and feel" of LBF Travel's websites with LBF Travel and LBF's Marks, as distinguished from other travel websites.

87. Defendants have mimicked the "look and feel" of Plaintiff's websites for Defendants' competing web-based travel websites in bad faith, with full knowledge of the existence and success of Plaintiff's websites, in order to heighten consumer confusion as to the source of the online travel services, by copying the graphic presentation and the functions of the interactive layers of Plaintiff's websites.

88. www.similarsitesearch.com shows that each of Defendants' websites is similar to Plaintiff's websites.

89. Upon information and belief, LBF Travel began using the arrangement of the graphic and interactive components that now comprise their websites "look and feel" before Defendants started using similar components to mimic the "look and feel" of LBF Travel's websites.

90. For example, LBF Travel invested significant time and resources in developing the distinctive "look and feel" for its Smartfares.com website. Thus, the homepage for Plaintiff's Smartfares.com website features the search engine in the upper left hand corner; with tabs for flights, cars, hotels, vacations, and cruises immediately above the search engine; promotional deals just to the right of the search engine; three columns listing cheap flights below the search engine; "Promo Codes" juxtaposed beside the cheap flights columns; and customer service number in large, orange letter at the top of the homepage. During viewing of Smartfares.com, the browser page displays a title "Cheap Flights, Cheap Airline Tickets, Cheap Flights Airfare, Flights Airfare Deals – Smartfares." Taken together, these elements comprise a user interface that facilitates intuitive use of the website that allows an Internet user to quickly and effectively search for promotions, browse deals to specific travel destinations, and otherwise navigate the website with ease. Attached hereto as Exhibit K is a screenshot of Smartfares.com's homepage as of December 10, 2013.

91. Without permission from or compensation to Plaintiff, Defendants blatantly imitated the distinctive graphic and interactive elements of Smartfares.com design to copy the essence of the website, and to mimic the "look and feel" of the website using substantially similar layout and interactive elements. The homepage for Onetravel.com also features the search engine in the upper left hand corner; with tabs for flights, cars, hotels, and vacations immediately above the search engine; promotional deals just to the right of the search engine; three columns listing cheap flights below the search engine; "Promo Codes" juxtaposed beside the cheap flights columns; and customer service number in large, orange letter at the top of the homepage. During viewing of Smartfares.com, the browser page displays a title "Cheap Tickets, Cheap Flights & Discount Airfare – OneTravel." Attached hereto as Exhibit L is a screenshot of Onetravel.com's homepage as of December 10, 2013.

92. To use another example, Defendants have also mimicked the look and feel of the distinctive "search screen" of LBF Travel's Travelation.com website. A search screen is the screen that appears after a user has selected his or her travel dates and locations for the website to search, while the website performs the search function. Travelation.com's search screen features a bar with moving stripes, the TRAVELATION mark in the upper part of the screen, and a message indicating that the website is searching for the best fares for the user's selected criteria. Attached hereto as Exhibit M is a screenshot of Travelation.com's search screen as of December 10, 2013.

93. Onetravel.com has adopted a search screen that has substantially similar look and feel to the one developed and used by Travelation.com. Attached hereto as Exhibit N is a screenshot of Onetravel.com's search screen as of December 10, 2013.

94. Plaintiff received several complaints from Internet users, who have been confused and misled by Defendants' advertising practices and design of Defendants' websites into believing that they were visiting Plaintiff's websites.

95. Plaintiff suffered real damage to its business standing and reputation of LBF's Marks by being associated with Defendants' businesses due to Defendants' activity described above, in light of the extremely negative reviews that Defendants' websites received. For example, the following reviews were posted on the website www.sitejabber.com in February and March 2014:

96. The website <http://www.scambook.com/company/view/1830/CheapoAir> states that the page www.cheapoair.com has accumulated 43 customer complaints.

97. Better Business Bureau reported on their website <http://www.bbb.org/new-york-city/business-reviews/travel-agencies-and-bureaus/fareportal-inc-in-new-york-ny-89212/> as follows:

Consumers have issued a range of complaints with the BBB against CheapOAir.com. Consumers report that upon finding the tickets they want to purchase and entering their billing information, they are informed that the flight is not available. According to complaints, CheapOAir.com then recommends more expensive flights. Consumers also allege difficulty in obtaining refunds. Some consumers who purchase flights on CheapOAir.com report that either all or a portion of their flights have not been confirmed with the airline resulting in flight cancellations. These consumers then have to pay a second time for their plane reservations.

V. Violations of Consumer Protection Statutes

98. As described above, Defendants have engaged in numerous acts that violate federal and New York trademark and unfair competition laws, including purchasing LBF's Marks as advertising keywords, and conscious imitation of nonfunctional design elements of Plaintiff's websites, all of which have unjustly enriched Defendants at significant damage to Plaintiff as well as the consumer public in New York.

99. Defendants have not only profited from their wrongful acts, they have injured the New York consumer public both by intentionally creating confusion as to the source of their services and the existence of an affiliation with Plaintiffs and by advertising nonexistent deals and misleading prices.

100. By using LBF's Marks in Defendants' search engine marketing and by intentionally taking on the look and feel of Plaintiff's websites, Defendants have or could have caused New York consumers to believe that they were purchasing services through Plaintiff or a company associated with Plaintiff.

101. Plaintiff has an excellent reputation in the web-based travel industry and, as such, consumers choose to use Plaintiff's services, knowing they will receive exceptional service that Plaintiff's customers have come to expect.

102. By causing consumers to believe they were purchasing Plaintiff's services and/or creating a situation in which consumers could reasonably believe they were purchasing Plaintiff's services, Defendants deceived the New York consumer public and caused or could have caused New York consumers to purchase Defendants' services under false pretenses.

103. Defendants further deceived consumer public by making certain comparative savings claims for airfares posted to their websites that were misleading and grossly exaggerated and/or did not actually offer saving to the consumers; announced limited-time price reductions when the rates were available on the ongoing basis, and made other unsupported claims.

104. For example, Defendants made statements like “Save up to 65% at CheapOair”, “40% to 65% discount on airfare,” without disclosing the benchmark prices and their source to consumers.

105. Upon information and belief, during a recent review by National Advertising Division (“NAD”), Defendants disclosed that the advertisements of discounts were based on a comparison to “Y” class unrestricted international fares. NAD noted in its decision that Y class fares are among the most expensive fares available, and comprise only nine percent of all tickets sold in the U.S.

106. Upon information and belief, NAD recently recommended that Defendants modify the “up to” savings claims in Google advertisements to avoid conveying the unsupported message that the basis of comparison is to competitors’ discounted fares and clearly disclose that the basis of the savings claim is a comparison to the applicable classes of domestic and international unrestricted fully refundable published fares.

107. Defendants also made statements such as “CheapOair saves you time and guarantees the best rate,” implying that they offered the best and lowest rates, leaving no reason for consumers to comparison shop for better rates. Upon information and belief, NAD recently recommended that Defendants more clearly disclose in immediate proximity to its “best price guarantee” the material limitation that consumers have four hours in which to find a lower fare.

108. Upon information and belief, NAD has made other recommendations to Defendants with respect to their advertising practices that cause and/or may cause consumer confusion.

109. Upon information and belief, Defendants did not follow NAD's recommendations in whole or in part, and to this day continue to advertise misleading savings and discounts that do not offer actual savings to consumers and are therefore materially misleading. This false advertising caused or could have caused injury to New York consumers.

COUNT I

VIOLATION OF THE LANHAM ACT, 15 U.S.C. §1114

110. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraph 1-94 of this Complaint, as though fully stated herein.

111. Defendants have violated Section 1114 by purchasing LBF's Marks as advertising keywords as means of advertising and selling Defendants' goods and services.

112. Defendants' use of LBF's Marks constitutes a use in commerce in connection with sale, offering for sale, distribution and advertising of Defendants' goods and services, that are substantially similar to the goods and services offered by Plaintiff.

113. Defendants have taken these actions in order to create initial interest confusion by making it appear that the keyword advertisement and links will direct the consumer to a website owned or operated by or affiliated with Plaintiff, as well as to create confusion in the public mind as to the source of Defendants' services and the affiliation of Defendants' services with Plaintiff's services.

114. Defendants' purchase of LBF's Marks as advertising keywords as described extensively in the Complaint cause and/or are likely to cause confusion, mistake, or deception as to the source, sponsorship, or approval of Defendants' travel services and falsely and deceptively represents Defendants' travel services as being affiliated with, sponsored by, authorized by, or provided by Plaintiff, in violation of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1114(1).

115. Upon information and belief, Defendants' use of plaintiff's marks causes at least some consumers actively seeking to find and do business with LBF Travel to click on one or more sponsored links linking to the webpages of LBF Travel's competitors, either by mistake, or through confusion or because they are deceived into believing such sponsored links are related to LBF Travel.

116. Upon information and belief, Defendants' use of LBF's Marks causes at least some initial confusion among Internet users who see Defendants' sponsored links in response to a search the Internet user conducted looking for LBF Travel.

117. Upon information and belief, there is an expectation among Internet users who conduct searches on Internet search engines that the results listed, including the sponsored links, will be related to the search term, especially with regard to sponsored links that appear immediately above the search results, and are designed to look similar to such search results.

118. Upon information and belief, some Internet users who search for LBF's Marks on search engines by inputting the words "TRAVELATION" or "SMARTFARES", thereafter click on Defendants' sponsored links by mistake, or out of confusion or because they are deceived into believing it is related to the search terms "TRAVELATION" or "SMARTFARES", and thereafter do not continue their search for LBF's Marks either because they do business with Defendants, or out of discouragement, or because they are diverted and distracted from doing so.

119. Upon information and belief, after being diverted from their search for LBF's Marks, some Internet users lose the initial "momentum" generated by the goodwill associated with LBF's Marks, or are otherwise presented with purchasing barriers associated with making a choice between competing providers of services, which causes LBF Travel to lose one of the key benefits of LBF's Marks.

120. Defendants committed their wrongful actions with the intent to mislead and misdirect consumers. Defendants' wrongful conduct has deprived, and will continue to deprive, Plaintiff of opportunities for controlling and expanding its goodwill.

121. This is an exceptional case and Plaintiff is entitled to recover reasonable attorneys' fees pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1117.

122. Plaintiff is being damaged and will continue to be damaged by this conduct and is without an adequate remedy at law to compensate it for Defendants' wrongful acts and therefore is entitled injunctive relief.

COUNT II

VIOLATION OF THE LANHAM ACT, 15 U.S.C. §1125(a)

123. Plaintiff realleges and incorporate by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1-101 of this Complaint, as though fully stated herein.

124. Section 1125(a)(1 )(A) of the Lanham Act provides in pertinent part:

(1) Any person who, on or in connection with any goods or services, or any container for goods, uses in commerce any word., term, name, symbol, or device, or any combination thereof, or any false designation of origin, false or misleading description of fact, or false or misleading representation of fact, which-

(A) is likely to cause confusion, or to cause mistake, or to deceive as to the affiliation., connection or association of such person with another person, or as to the origin, sponsorship, or approval of his or her goods, services or commercial activities by another person....

125. Defendants' purchase of LBF's Marks as advertising keyword as described extensively in this Complaint falsely suggests that they are associated with Plaintiff, in violation of §43(a) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. §1125(a).

126. Defendants' unauthorized uses of LBF's Marks and close variations thereof constitutes a false designation of origin and a false or misleading description and representation of fact that is likely to cause initial interest confusion, actual confusion and mistake, and to deceive the public as to the affiliation, connection or association of Defendants with Plaintiff and as to the origin, sponsorship, or approval of Defendants' products and services by Plaintiff, all in violation of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a).

127. Defendants' unauthorized uses of LBF's Marks threaten to impair the distinctiveness of LBF's Marks, thereby diluting them, and to tarnish them by association with Defendant's services.

128. This is an exceptional case and Plaintiff's are entitled to recover reasonable attorneys' fees pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1117.

129. Defendants' wrongful acts are causing damage to Plaintiff and Plaintiff is without an adequate remedy at law to compensate it for Defendants' wrongful activity and therefore is entitled to injunctive relief.

COUNT III

STATE UNFAIR COMPETITION

130. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 – 108 of this Complaint, as though such allegations were set forth at length.

131. Defendants have violated New York law on unfair competition by attempting, in bad faith, to palm off their goods as Plaintiff's.

132. Defendants acted in bad faith because they knowingly and willfully engaged, and continue to engage, in the same conduct that they claim LBF Travel is guilty of, as alleged in their Complaint in the matter captioned Fareportal, Inc. and WK Travel, Inc. v. LBF Travel, Inc. and Globester LLC (S.D.N.Y., Docket No. 13-CV-2412).

133. Defendants have purchased LBF's Marks as advertising Keywords and willfully and without authorization used LBF's Marks and close variations thereof in online advertising directed to the market generally and intentionally mimicked the distinctive “look and feel” of Plaintiff's websites in order to make their own competing services appear connected with Plaintiff's services and thereby misappropriate Plaintiff's good and will and customers.

134. Defendants' services compete with Plaintiff's services for market share. Defendants' conscious imitation and subjective intent to imitate and create a likelihood of consumer confusion is evidenced by the cumulative lack of differentiation between the distinctive, nonfunctional design elements of their competing websites.

135. Even if Defendants did not intentionally imitate Plaintiff's websites, Defendants have at least violated their duty, under New York law, to design their websites in a manner that will avoid a likelihood of consumers confusing Defendants' websites and services with those of Plaintiff's.

136. Defendants' actions are deceptive and unfair and have caused, and are likely to cause in the future, a public injury and a detrimental effect on consumers as to the origin of Defendants' products and services; are likely to cause confusion, mistake or deception as to the source, sponsorship, or approval of Defendants' travel services; and constitute "palming off" in violation of the New York common law on unfair competition.

137. Defendants' wrongful acts are causing damage to Plaintiff's good will, reputation, and business and Plaintiff is without an adequate remedy at law to compensate it for Defendants' wrongful activity and therefore is entitled to injunctive relief.

COUNT IV

STATE TRADEMARK AND TRADE NAME INFRINGEMENT – VIOLATION OF NEW YORK GENERAL BUSINESS LAW § 360-1

138. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1-115 of this Complaint, as though such allegations were set forth at length.

139. NY GBL § 360-1 states:

Likelihood of injury to business reputation or of dilution of the distinctive quality of a mark or trade name shall be a ground for injunctive relief in cases of infringement of a mark registered or not registered or in cases of unfair competition, notwithstanding the absence of competition between the parties or the absence of confusion as to the source of goods or services.

140. Plaintiff is entitled to protection under NY GBL § 360-1 because it possesses strong marks and trade names, including SMARTFARES and TRAVELATION, which each have a distinctive quality and/or have acquired secondary meaning such that they have become associated in the public's mind with LBF Travel's services as distinguished from the services of competitors.

141. Defendants have violated NY GBL § 360-1 by their unauthorized, willful use of LBF's Marks, trade names, and key parts thereof by purchasing LBF's Marks as advertising keywords, all of which creates a likelihood of dilution by: (i) blurring in that the strength of their association with Plaintiff is diminished by Defendants' unauthorized use thereof; and/or (ii) tarnishment by association with Defendants' services.

142. The unauthorized uses of LBF's Marks by Defendants provide Defendants with an unfair commercial and financial benefit and deprive Plaintiff of the full value of the good will and reputation it has invested millions of dollars in developing.

143. Defendants' wrongful acts are causing damage to Plaintiff and Plaintiff is without an adequate remedy at law to compensate it for Defendants' wrongful activity and therefore is entitled to injunctive relief.

COUNT V

STATE TRADE NAME INFRINGEMENT –
VIOLATION OF NEW YORK GENERAL BUSINESS LAW § 133

144. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1-121 of this Complaint, as though such allegations were set forth at length.

145. NY GBL § 133 prohibits any person or entity "with intent to deceive or mislead the public" from using all or part of any "corporate, assumed or trade name" for advertising purposes in such a manner as may "deceive or mislead the public" as to the identity of the person or entity or its connection with the person or firm that rightfully owns or uses the "corporate, assumed or trade name."

146. Plaintiff is entitled to protection under NY GBL § 133 because it possesses strong marks and trade names, including SMARTFARES and TRAVELATION which each have a distinctive quality and/or have acquired secondary meaning such that they have become associated in the public's mind with LBF Travel's services as distinguished from the services of competitors.

147. Defendants have violated NY GBL § 133 by intentionally purchasing LBF's Marks as advertising keywords. Defendants have taken these actions in order to create confusion and to deceive the public as to the affiliation, connection, or association of Defendants with Plaintiff and as to the origin, sponsorship, or approval of Defendants' products and services by Plaintiff, all in violation of §133 of the NY GBL.

148. These unauthorized uses of Plaintiff's trade names by Defendants provide Defendants with an unfair commercial and financial benefit and deprive Plaintiff of the full value of the good will and reputation it has invested millions of dollars in developing.

149. Defendants' wrongful acts are causing damage to Plaintiff and Plaintiff is without an adequate remedy at law to compensate it for Defendants' wrongful activity and therefore is entitled to injunctive relief.

COUNT VI

DECEPTIVE ACTS AND PRACTICES – VIOLATION OF NEW YORK GENERAL BUSINESS LAW § 349

150. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1-127 of this Complaint, as though such allegations were set forth at length.

151. NY GBL § 349 states in pertinent part:

(a) Deceptive acts or practices in the conduct of any business, trade or commerce or in the furnishing of any service in this state are hereby declared unlawful.

(h) In addition to the right of action granted to the attorney general pursuant to this section, any person who has been injured by reason of any violation of this section may bring an action in his own name to enjoin such unlawful act or practice, an action to recover his actual damages or fifty dollars, whichever is greater, or both such actions. The court may, in its discretion, increase the award of damages to an amount not to exceed three times the actual damages up to one thousand dollars, if the court finds the defendant willfully or knowingly violated this section. The court may award reasonable attorney's fees to a prevailing plaintiff.

152. Defendants have violated NY GBL § 349 by willfully using LBF's Marks, trade names, and close variations thereof without Plaintiff's consent and advertising misleading sales, promotions and deals to the New York consumer public. These actions have caused injury to Plaintiff as well as to the New York consumer public.

153. Defendants' unauthorized, willful use of LBF's Marks, trade names and close variations thereof, are likely to cause confusion, mistake, or deception as to the source, sponsorship, or approval of Defendants' travel services, and falsely and deceptively represent Defendants' travel services as being affiliated with, sponsored by, authorized by, or provided by,

Plaintiff, and constitute deceptive acts and practices under § 349 of the New York General Business Law. These actions provide an unfair commercial and financial benefit to Defendants, have caused or threaten to cause injury to Plaintiff's good will and reputation, and unfairly divert customers and revenue from Plaintiff. Defendants' violations of § 349 of the New York General Business Law directly and proximately caused injuries to Plaintiff in an amount to be determined at trial.

154. Defendants' wrongful acts are causing damage to Plaintiff and Plaintiff is without an adequate remedy at law to compensate it for Defendants' wrongful activity and therefore is entitled to injunctive relief. Further, as authorized by § 349(h) of the New York General Business Law, Plaintiff is entitled to recover reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

COUNT VII

FALSE ADVERTISING – VIOLATION OF NEW YORK GENERAL BUSINESS LAW § 350

155. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1-132 of this Complaint, as though such allegations were set forth at length.

156. NY GBL § 350 states: "False advertising in the conduct of any business, trade or commerce or in the furnishing of any service in this state is hereby declared unlawful."

157. Defendants have violated NY GBL § 350 by willfully using LBF's Marks, trade names, and key parts thereof without Plaintiff's consent, and advertising misleading sales, promotions and deals to the New York consumer public. These actions have caused injury to Plaintiff as well as to the New York consumer public.

158. Defendants' unauthorized, wilful use of LBF's Marks, trade names and close variations thereof is likely to cause confusion, mistake, or deception as to the source, sponsorship, or approval of Defendants' travel services and falsely and deceptively represent Defendants' travel services as being affiliated with, sponsored by, authorized by, or provided by, Plaintiff, and constitute false advertising under § 350 of the New York General Business Law.

159. Defendants' aforesaid acts provide an unfair commercial and financial benefit to Defendants, have caused or threaten to cause injury to Plaintiff's good will and reputation, and unfairly divert customers and revenue from Plaintiff.

160. Defendants' wrongful acts are causing damage to Plaintiff and Plaintiff is without an adequate remedy at law to compensate it for Defendants' wrongful activity and therefore is entitled to injunctive relief.

COUNT VIII

STATE UNFAIR BUSINESS PRACTICE

161. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1-138 of this Complaint, as though such allegations were set forth at length.

162. Defendants have engaged in unfair business practice in violation of New York State common law by making unauthorized use of LBF's Marks, trade names, and close variations thereof, and their trade dress.

163. Defendants' unauthorized, willful use of LBF's Marks, trade names, and close variations thereof, and their intentional, imitation of the distinctive look and feel of Plaintiff's websites, are likely to cause confusion, mistake, or deception as to the source, sponsorship, or approval of Defendants' travel services and falsely and deceptively represent Defendants' travel services as being affiliated with, sponsored by, authorized by, or provided by, Plaintiff, and create consumer confusion and cause customers that would otherwise purchase services from Plaintiff to obtain them through Defendants instead.

164. Defendants' aforesaid acts provide an unfair commercial and financial benefit to Defendants, threaten the good will and reputation of Plaintiff, and deprive Plaintiff of the full value of the commercial and proprietary information that it has invested millions of dollars developing.

165. Defendants' wrongful acts are causing damage to Plaintiff and Plaintiff is without an adequate remedy at law to compensate it for Defendants' wrongful activity and therefore is entitled to injunctive relief.

COUNT IX

UNJUST ENRICHMENT

166. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1-143 of this Complaint, as though such allegations were set forth at length.

167. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants acted willfully and in bad faith, with full knowledge and understanding that they are engaging in the same conduct that they accused LBF Travel of in the matter captioned Fareportal, Inc. and WK Travel, Inc. v. LBF Travel, Inc. and Globester LLC (S.D.N.Y., Docket No. 13-CV-2412).

168. Defendants' wrongful actions, as described above, provide an unfair commercial and financial benefit to Defendants without compensation to Plaintiff, who spent millions of dollars developing LBF's Marks and their proprietary and confidential commercial information and trade secrets, threaten the good will and reputation of Plaintiff, and deprive Plaintiff of the full value of the commercial and proprietary information that they have invested millions of dollars in developing.

169. Upon information and belief, given that Plaintiff and Defendants are direct competitors in the market of discount online travel services, Defendants' infringements caused sales to be diverted to Defendants when such sales would otherwise have gone to LBF Travel.

170. Defendants' wrongful acts are causing damage to Plaintiff and Plaintiff is without an adequate remedy at law to compensate it for Defendants' wrongful activity and therefore is entitled to injunctive relief.

COUNT X

CLAIM FOR DECLARATORY JUDGMENT OF INVALIDITY AND
CANCELLATION UNDER 15 U.S.C. §1064 OF DEFENDANTS' TRADEMARK
REGISTRATION 3,576,166

171. Plaintiff realleges and incorporate by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1-146 of this Complaint, as though such allegations were set forth at length.

172. Defendants' initiation of the 2412 Matter created a case of actual controversy within the meaning of 28 U.S.C. §2201 et seq. thus warranting the declaratory relief sought by Plaintiff in this matter.

173. Plaintiff seeks a declaratory judgment and a determination that U.S. Trademark Registration 3,576,166 for the mark CHEAPOAIR should be cancelled because it is invalid and/or unenforceable.

174. Upon information and belief, and as set forth herein above, U.S. Trademark Registration 3,576,166 for the mark CHEAPOAIR is invalid, unenforceable and cancellable because its corresponding mark CHEAPOAIR is descriptive, if not generic, for the services in connection with which it is being used and because it was improperly issued in view of the 2004 U.S. Trademark Registration No.2,890,981 for the mark CHEAPAIR.

175. Plaintiff has standing to seek cancellation of this trademark as it has a commercial interest in LBF's Marks, and has an interest in using the generic industry terms that form part of this mark descriptively in their business.

176. The continuation of Registration 3,576,166 on the Principal Register has caused and will cause significant damage to Plaintiff, who is Defendants' direct competitor, unless cancelled by this Court.

COUNT XI

CLAIM FOR DECLARATORY JUDGMENT OF INVALIDITY AND CANCELLATION UNDER 15 U.S.C. §1064 OF DEFENDANTS' TRADEMARK REGISTRATION 3,672,700

177. Plaintiff realleges and incorporate by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1-151 of this Complaint, as though such allegations were set forth at length.

178. Defendants' initiation of the 2412 Matter created a case of actual controversy within the meaning of 28 U.S.C. §2201 et seq. thus warranting the declaratory relief sought by Plaintiff in this matter.

179. Plaintiff seeks a declaratory judgment and a determination that U.S. Trademark Registration 3,672,700 for the mark CHEAPOSTAY should be cancelled because it is invalid and/or unenforceable.

180. Upon information and belief, and as set forth herein above, U.S. Trademark Registration 3,672,700 for the mark CHEAPOSTAY is invalid, unenforceable and cancellable because its corresponding mark CHEAPOSTAY is descriptive, if not generic, for the services in connection with which it is being used.

181. Plaintiff has standing to seek cancellation of this trademark as it has a commercial interest in LBF's Marks, and has an interest in using the generic industry terms that form part of this mark descriptively in their business.

182. The continuation of Registration 3,672,700 on the Principal Register has caused and will cause significant damage to Plaintiff, who is Defendants' direct competitor, unless cancelled by this Court.

COUNT XII

CLAIM FOR DECLARATORY JUDGMENT OF INVALIDITY AND
CANCELLATION UNDER 15 U.S.C. §1064 OF DEFENDANTS' TRADEMARK
REGISTRATION 3,580,258

183. Plaintiff realleges and incorporate by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1-156 of this Complaint, as though such allegations were set forth at length.

184. Defendants' initiation of the 2412 Matter created a case of actual controversy within the meaning of 28 U.S.C. §2201 et seq. thus warranting the declaratory relief sought by Plaintiff in this matter.

185. Plaintiff seeks a declaratory judgment and a determination that U.S. Trademark Registration 3,580,258 for the mark CHEAPOAIR.COM THE ONLY WAY TO GO!! should be cancelled because it is invalid and/or unenforceable.

186. Upon information and belief, and as set forth herein above, U.S. Trademark Registration 3,580,258 for the mark CHEAPOAIR.COM THE ONLY WAY TO GO!! is invalid, unenforceable and cancellable because its corresponding mark CHEAPOAIR.COM THE ONLY WAY TO GO!! is descriptive, if not generic, for the services in connection with which it is being used and because it was improperly issued in view of the 2004 U.S. Trademark Registration No. 2,890,981 for the mark CHEAPAIR.COM and the 2003 first use of CHEAPAIR.COM by American Travel Solutions.

187. Plaintiff has standing to seek cancellation of this trademark as it has a commercial interest in LBF's Marks, and has an interest in using the generic industry terms that form part of this mark descriptively in their business.

188. The continuation of Registration 3,580,258 on the Principal Register has caused and will cause significant damage to Plaintiff, who is Defendants' direct competitor, unless cancelled by this Court.

COUNT XIII

CLAIM FOR DECLARATORY JUDGMENT OF INVALIDITY AND
CANCELLATION UNDER 15 U.S.C. §1064 OF DEFENDANTS' TRADEMARK
REGISTRATION 3,553,213

189. Plaintiff realleges and incorporate by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1-161 of this Complaint, as though such allegations were set forth at length.

190. Defendants' initiation of the 2412 Matter created a case of actual controversy within the meaning of 28 U.S.C. §2201 et seq. thus warranting the declaratory relief sought by Plaintiff in this matter.

191. Plaintiff seeks a declaratory judgment and a determination that U.S. Trademark Registration 3,553,213 for the mark CHEAPOAIR.COM THE ONLY WAY TO GO!! (stylized mark) should be cancelled because it is invalid and/or unenforceable.

192. Upon information and belief, and as set forth herein above, U.S. Trademark Registration 3,553,213 for the mark CHEAPOAIR.COM THE ONLY WAY TO GO!! (stylized mark) is invalid, unenforceable and cancellable because it is descriptive, if not generic, for the services in connection with which it is being used and because it was improperly issued in view of the 2004 U.S. Trademark Registration No. 2,890,981 for the mark CHEAPAIR.COM and the 2003 first use of CHEAPAIR.COM by American Travel Solutions.

193. Plaintiff has standing to seek cancellation of this trademark as it has a commercial interest in LBF's Marks, and has an interest in using the generic industry terms that form part of this mark descriptively in their business.

194. The continuation of Registration 3,553,213 on the Principal Register has caused and will cause significant damage to Plaintiff, who is Defendants' direct competitor, unless cancelled by this Court.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

- A That this Court. grant preliminary and permanent injunctive relief, pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1116, against Defendants and their respective officers, partners, agents, servants, employees, sales representatives, distributors, partners, subsidiaries, related companies, heirs, predecessors, successors, assigns, attorneys, and all others in active concert or participation with any of them enjoining them from:
- i. Using, whether directly or indirectly, SMARTFARES, TRAVELATION, or any other mark or word similar to any of LBF' Marks, including any key part thereof, in a manner that is likely to cause confusion or mistake, or to deceive, in connection with online travel services, including, without limitation, in any advertising or SEM campaign;
  - ii. Engaging in any other act or thing likely to confuse, mislead, or deceive others into believing that Defendants, or any of their respective products or services emanate from Plaintiff, or are connected with, affiliated with, sponsored by, or approved by Plaintiff or any of its family of brands;
  - iii. Aiding or assisting any person in engaging in any of the acts prohibited by subsections (i) through (ii) above;
- B For an order directing each Defendant to file with this Court and serve on Plaintiff within three (3) days after service of an injunction a written report under oath setting forth in detail the manner and form in which each Defendant has complied with the injunction pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §1116;
- C For an order requiring Defendants and all those in privity with them to surrender for destruction all materials incorporating or reproducing any of LBF's Marks or any key part thereof in accordance with 15 U.S.C. 1118, and the equitable power of this Court to enforce the common law of New York;

D For an accounting of the gains and profits realized by each of Defendants from their respective wrongful acts of infringement, unfair competition, and/or deceptive acts and false advertising;

E For an order requiring Defendants to pay Plaintiff:

- i. statutory damages;
- ii. punitive damages;
- iii. treble damages;
- iv. actual damages;
- v. all profits wrongfully derived by Defendants from the use of LBF's marks or any close variations thereof;
- vi. Plaintiff's costs and expenses, including without limitation reasonable attorneys' fees; and
- vii. prejudgment interest at the maximum legal rate;

F That this case be deemed "exceptional" within the meaning of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1117;

G That Defendants' U.S. Trademark Registrations, i.e., U.S. Trademark Registration No. 3,576,166 for the mark CHEAPOAIR; U.S. Trademark Registration No. 3,672,700 for the mark CHEAPOSTAY; U.S. Trademark Registration No. 3,580,258 for the mark CHEAPOAIR.COM THE ONLY WAY TO GO!!; and U.S. Trademark Registration No. 3,553,213 for the mark CHEAPOAIR.COM

THE ONLY WAY TO GO!! (stylized mark) do not merit protection and are therefore invalid and unenforceable;

- H That Defendants' U.S. Trademark Registrations, i.e., U.S. Trademark Registration No. 3,576,166 for the mark CHEAPOAIR; U.S. Trademark Registration No. 3,672,700 for the mark CHEAPOSTAY; U.S. Trademark Registration No. 3,580,258 for the mark CHEAPOAIR.COM THE ONLY WAY TO GO!!; and U.S. Trademark Registration No. 3,553,213 for the mark CHEAPOAIR.COM THE ONLY WAY TO GO!! (stylized mark) are cancelled; and
- I For such other and further relief as this Court deems just and equitable.

JURY DEMAND

Plaintiffs hereby demand and request a trial by jury on all issues so triable.

Re: Fareportal et al. v LBF Travel Inc., et al.
File No.: 14787.00001

Dear Norm:

This letter is to advise you that your clients are continuing to infringe on the trademarks of LBF Travel, Inc. ("LBF") including directly targeting LBF's keywords and trademarks in google, yahoo and Microsoft search engines.

According to the reports from "The Search Monitor," since the time your clients discussed settlement with LBF and LBF provided search terms as part of our good faith settlement negotiations, it appears plaintiffs have utilized the information learned during settlement discussions to intentionally, systematically and deliberately bid on the LBF keywords and trademarks.

We have reports from independent companies to support plaintiffs' ongoing conduct. Please advise your clients to cease and desist from inappropriately using information obtained during settlement discussions to interfere with LBF's business.

Very truly yours,

Wilson Elser Moskowitz Edelman & Dicker LLP

In The Matter of Application Serial No. 85/566,395

Published in the Official Gazette on January 15, 2013, in Classes 35, 39 and 43.

AMERICAN TRAVEL SOLUTIONS, LLC	)
Opposer,	)
v.	)	Opposition No.
FAREPORTAL, INC., d/b/a CHEAP-O-AIR,	)
Applicant.	)

American Travel Solutions, LLC, (referred to hereafter as "American Travel"), a Delaware Limited Liability Company with a mailing address of 615 South DuPont Highway, Dover, Delaware 19901, believes it will be damaged by registration of the mark shown in App. Ser. No. 85/566,395 and opposes the same.

The grounds for opposition are as follows:

1. Since 1989 American Travel has been a leading aggregator of airline fares and discounts.
2. For many years American Travel has used the distinctive names and service marks CHEAPAIR and CHEAPAIR.COM in connection with its online travel business throughout the United States and abroad.
3. The CHEAPAIR and CHEAPAIR.COM marks have been prominently displayed as the name of American Travel's business and as the name of American Travel website, <www.cheapair.com>, since 1994.
4. American Travel owns federal trademark registrations of CHEAPAIR (Reg. 2,890,981, Registered 10/05/04) for "travel agency services, namely making reservations and bookings for airplane transportation, car rentals and arranging cruises" in Class 39; and CHEAPAIR.COM (Reg. No. 3,813,293, Registered 07/06/10) for "travel agency services, namely, making reservations and bookings for airline transportation, car rentals and arranging cruises; travel agency services, namely, making hotel reservations for others" in Classes 39 and 43.

5. Since 1994, long prior to March 12, 2012, the date on which Fareportal, Inc., ("Applicant") filed the application opposed herein, Opposer has used the CHEAPAIR mark in connection with, inter alia travel agency services, namely making reservations and bookings for airplane transportation, car rentals and arranging cruises.

6. Since 2003, long prior to March 12, 2012, the date of the application opposed herein, American Travel has offered travel agency services, namely making reservations and bookings for airplane transportation, car rentals and arranging cruises under the CHEAPAIR.COM service mark.

7. American Travel has established itself in the field of airfare and other travel services using the CHEAPAIR and CHEAPAIR.COM marks, and American Travel has spent hundreds thousands of dollars to promote and distribute materials bearing the mark in interstate commerce.

8. As a result of American Travel's long use, advertising and promotion, the CHEAPAIR and CHEAPAIR.COM marks are strongly associated with American Travel and therefore it owns immense valuable goodwill in its CHEAPAIR and CHEAPAIR.COM names and marks.

CASE 1:13-cv-09143-LAK Document 13 Filed 03/07/14 Page 73 of 92

9. By virtue of its long-standing involvement and prominence in the business of travel services, American Travel's CHEAPAIR and CHEAPAIR.COM names and marks have become nationally recognized.

10. On March 12, 2012, Applicant filed an application, Serial No. 85/556,395, to register the mark CHEAPOAIR.COM ("the Infringing Mark") in connection with the following services:

"Advertising services for travel services, namely, promoting the goods, services, brand identity and commercial information and news of travel and travel related companies on the Internet," in International Class 35;

"Providing an on-line computer database in the field of travel information services; travel and tour information service; travel and tour ticket reservation service; travel services, namely, providing fare and rate information for transportation bookings and reservations for flights, car rentals, cruises, rail travel, and tours via computer; and providing travel information and news via computer" in International Class 39; and

"Providing travel lodging information services and travel lodging booking agency services for travelers" in International Class 43.

11. Applicant's application to register the Infringing Mark is without American Travel's consent.

12. Applicant's proposed use of the Infringing Mark in connection with the applied-for services is likely to cause confusion, mistake or deception with American Travel's CHEAPAIR and CHEAPAIR.COM name and marks.

13. American Travel has previously filed an opposition against applicant's trademark application number 85/564,451 for WWW.CHEAPOAIR.COM the number for that opposition is 91208345.

14. Accordingly, Applicant's registration of the Infringing Mark would damage American Travel.
